NEW PICKFORD FILM BIG SUCCESS

Mary Pickford, the idolized star of the Famous Players Film Company, adds another striking characterization to her already lengthy and notable repertoire of screen successes in "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," now playing at the Liberty Theater. The story is a now world-famous one of a young girl's unflinching faith and triumphant ultimate reward. As a stage offering, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow" gladdened the hearts of many thousands and the screen version, with Mary Pickford in the role of "Glad," should increase that number to millions.

The ragged little urchin of the slums of London whose undying optimism and heroic courage even starvation and deadly peril are unable to quench is a characterization ideally suited to Mary Pickford, and the delicacy of her portrayal of "Glad," together with the threads of symbolism woven about the drama, make an indelible impression upon the spectator. The "Pathe Weekly" makes a particularly strong appeal to the women through the medium of the latest in millinery and cloaks from Paris, and there is a very animated cartoon. The latest episode of "The Romance of Elaine" falls to bring that young lady's troubles any nearer to an end.

EMPIRE IS HOUSE OF FUN THIS WEEK

Charlie Chaplin, "King of Comedians," has succeeded in branding screen humor with a new meaning. Chaplin, breezier, snappier, better than ever, will appear at the Empire theater today and this evening in a two-act comedy, "His New Job." The famous fun-maker has injected much ginger and joy into every foot of film. The Empire can justly assume the title, "The House of Merriment," during the Chaplin engagement. Chaplin playlets will be featured today and Tuesday. A well-selected cast will include Harry Beaumont, Gertrude McCoy, Richard Travers and Irene Westbrooke.

"The Soul Mate" is an intensely interesting drama in which William Bechtel is featured. Augustus Phillips has produced a splendid melodramatic offering in "From a Life of Crime." The story is one of Lee Arthur's best. It is a new type of crook play, introducing little Alice Melnotte, a recently "discovered" movie artist.

A "Slippery Slim" comedy will close the program.

COON SONG BILL AT POPULAR NEW

There will be an entire change of program at the Popular theater this evening in both the vaudeville act and the moving picture features. Josephine Gassman and her peccaninnies made such a success of their act last week, despite the rain, that Manager Hughes has engaged them for another week, and they will give to the patrons of the Popular new songs with the "cooniest" kind of coon flavor and melodies of the cotton-field bouquet. There is just one number in the act that will not be changed. By special request "Only Me," the baby peccaninnies, and Miss Irene will appear again in their "Bird of Paradise" duet, which means that "Only Me" will feature her hula skirt and hula dance that created so much fun the latter part of last week.

Manager Hughes is getting together for the week a fine collection of moving pictures, and in addition he will have an orchestra of Hawaiians on duty to furnish the string music and accompaniments for the Gassman troupe.

Following is the program that the Gassman company will present: When Uncle Joe Plays a Rag; On His Old Banjo, Miss Gassman; I Miss You Most of All, Miss Irene; Bird of Paradise (by special request); Miss Irene and "Only Me"; When We Leave Town, Miss Irene and Mabel;

SUSPICIONS OF SPOUSE AROUSED

A midnight dinner, a couple of hats and a shrewd wife are responsible for the funny situations to be depicted in the two act farce comedy "In Gay New York" to be presented by the Raymond Teal Musical Comedy Company at the Bijou theater tonight and for two days following. In this new offering of the Teal Company there will be interspersed a lively bunch of musical numbers in which the ducklings will introduce new and interesting dances.

A resume of the musical program as arranged for this bill will give an idea of the wide variety of material used:

Opening chorus, Teal Ducklings, "The Silvery Man in the Silvery Moon," Mildred Manning and Ducklings; "Ragtime Arabian Nights," Roy Kinslow and Ducklings; a solo by Madeline Rowe; "Dancing Around the World," Hazel Lake and Roy Kinslow, assisted by the entire company. New dances by the Ducklings in the second act opening; "A Beautiful Night with a Beautiful Girl," Madeline Rowe and Girls; "Tennessee, Homer Long and Girls; trio specialty, "Nothing Too Good for You," Roy Kinslow, Marion Rochester and Minnie Vandervoort; "Midnight Ragtime Ball," Hazel Lake and the Ducklings.

MULLET TO BE GIVEN PROTECTION FOR TIME

The elusive and toothsome mullet may roam the deep without fear of fishermen after December 1, as the closed season for this fish begins on that date and continues until March 1, inclusive.

In December, 1911, the law providing for a closed season on mullets went into effect, and has not been repealed. The law forbids the catching of amaama, or mullet, or offering them for sale, except outside the closed season.

Owners of private fish ponds, however, are exempt from the law, provided the ponds are enclosed. The law continues in effect until six years from April 20, 1911. This means it remains in operation until April 20, 1917.
